ATLANTIC CITY LEADS FASHIONS IN NOVEL CHAPEAU DESIGNS

Velvet Cats, and Barnyard Replicas in Hats, Sterile Boardwalk Pedestrians—Bridge Parties and Afternoon Tea Dances Favorite Diversions.

ATLANTIC CITY, July 28. THE Boardwalk Girl is showing a penchant for the weirdest kind of headgear. Promenaders were startled this morning to see a very attractive girl wearing a black velvet chapeau, the front of which resembled a black cat. There were yellow beads for eyes and straw for whiskers. A stiffly curled velvet "tail" was placed at the back. Many of the newest chapeaus are novel replicas of barnyard fowls.

Atlantic City was never so gay as it is this summer. There are bridge parties morning, afternoon and night. Many of the afternoon parties are followed by "The Dancants" from 5 until 7. Dancing, which was the diversion "par excellence" last season, is still enjoyed by the younger set, and the older ones who are keen about eliminating some of their avoidpools. There is a morning dancing class at the Brighton Casino composed of 10 members who weigh in the aggregate 250 pounds.

The afternoon tea dances at the Brighton are the mecca of seashore fashionables. The spacious "deck," with its covered awning and its dainty tea tables is most inviting and many of the hostesses at bridge at the nearby hotels bring their guests over for these matinee dances. Miss Callie Hoke Smith, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Hoke Smith, seldom misses a dance. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Closen, of Overbrook, entertained at the Casino Mrs. Walter Allen, Mr. and Mrs. George Schieler and Mr. and Mrs. John Young, Miss Shevall, of Philadelphia, who is spending the summer at Ocean City, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Atchinson, of Atlanta, Ga., entertained at tea at the Brighton in honor of their daughter, Miss Mary Atchinson, who is one of the best dancers at the resort. Mrs. J. Abbott Wiggins entertained a party Friday afternoon.

This week promises to be a very busy one for the cottage colony. Today the Chelsea set will gather at Kenton Hall, Belmont avenue and the Beach, to attend the annual sale for the benefit of All Saints' Church. For the last several weeks the cottagers have been holding sewing parties on their spacious verandas, making fancy articles for this fest. The rector of the church, the Rev. John W. Williams, hopes to have the $5000 mortgage reduced at least one-third as the result of this sale.

In addition to the usual Tuesday morning and Thursday afternoon bridge parties, which have been held at the Chelsea Yacht Club all summer, a large card party was held yesterday afternoon for the benefit of the North American Sanitarium.

CAPE MAY, July 28.—A more glorious night could not have been chosen than Sunday for a sailing party which Mr. and Mrs. E. Spencer Miller, 24, chaperoned. Some members of the party were bathing suits and went swimming from the boat. Among those present were Miss Alice Bergeson, Miss Josephine Glendon, Miss Valerina Mitchell, Miss Louise Gray, Miss Dorothy Price, Miss Louise Gray, Miss Ethel Nichols, Miss Phillis Lee, Mr. Joseph Meutron, Miss Brooks, Miss Helen, Mr. Parker, Mr. Cannon, Mr. Samuel, Mr. H. H. Williams, Mr. Chunn, Mr. Nathaniel Davis and Mr. April Sparks.

Miss Harriett Zell and Miss Betty Zell of Baltimore, will be among the late arrivals in Cape May this week. Miss Margaret Smith will have an August for a few days Miss Edna Thayer at their pretty cottage on Stockton avenue.

Mr. Ernest Cosens, well known in football history, was among those spending the week-end in Cape May. Among the new arrivals at Hotel Cape May are Mr. and Mrs. G. Dunbar Shuman, of Germantown; Miss M. A. McDermott, Miss Helen Shewell, Mr. James Penrose, Mr. R. T. Nolle, Mr. Charles S. Chesnut, Mr. Herman M. Voorhies, of Haddon Park; Mr. V. Barton Johnson; Mrs. H. N. Stephens, Miss B. Kleasson, Miss J. D. Warden, Mrs. H. G. Edgerton, Mr. E. P. Patton, Mr. H. B. Edgerton, U. S. N., Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. W.
